

WELCOME TO HONKAJOKI

Honkajoki is located in the province of Western Finland and is part of the Satakunta region. The municipality has a population of 1824 (31 August 2013) and the municipality covers an area of 333,22 square kilometres of which 1,80 square kilometres is inland water (1 January 2011). The population density is 5,54/km².

Here in Honkajoki we can live in a peaceful countryside setting with a relaxed rural atmosphere. Still, Honkajoki is said to be a very dynamic municipality: the spirit of the municipality includes a lot of entrepreneurship and activity as we have a strong entrepreneurship tradition in the area.

Day-care services for children are arranged at group day-care homes. Honkajoki has a very advanced public school system including a pre-school, secondary school and upper secondary school.

Honkajoki wind farm

Honkajoki wind farm with nine turbines was completed in 2013. Mounted on steel tube towers with a height of 120 metres, the turbines will produce about 70 000-80 000 MWh of electricity per year, covering the annual energy needs of 30 000-40 000 flats.

The wind farm was constructed by Taaleritehdas, which is one of the largest wind farm construction companies in Finland. Taaleritehdas had a joint project with Honkatuulet Oy.

Honkajoki Biogas Plant

Finnish cleantech company Biotehdas has started the construction of a new biogas plant here in Honkajoki. It will be located in an area with a high concentration on food companies, including Honkajoki Ltd. The biogas plant will process about 60 000 tonnes of waste a year and include a power plant with a capacity of 4MW.
